THE PURPOSE OF LADS TO LEADERS

After months and months of practicing both at the building and especially at home, we are ready to make our annual trip to the Lads to Leaders Convention in Atlanta, GA. It is not only a culminating event but a wonderful encouragement to all of our young men and ladies in their service to the Lord. I am a firm believer that our young people will excel in the things that we encourage. We want to encourage spiritual things. One of the unique aspects of Lads is its use of others to inspire the very best in our young people. It reminds me of how Paul used the generosity of the Macedonians to inspire the Church at Corinth, and at the same time he used the generosity of the Corinthians to inspire the Macedonians. As everyone does their best, God is glorified.

Of course, Lads is not all about the trophies. I think that some of the best lessons my children have learned at Lads have come from years when they did not bring a trophy home. (Another article for another time!) Lads is about helping our young men and ladies grow into leaders in the Church. If you were heavily involved in these things as a teenager and stop leading as an adult something is wrong. These activities are designed to promote future preachers, song leaders, Bible Class teachers, church promoters, etc. When you see people doing those things as adults, remember... They had to start somewhere!

I was reminded of this goal of Lads to Leaders last weekend. I preached for a Special Sunday at a rural TN congregation. Deacon led the singing for all three services. He did a great job and was probably a better song leader than the congregation was accustomed to having. That is what Lads to Leaders is all about. One day our boys will be men. One day our girls will be women. When that day comes, they will be prepared to lead wherever the Lord leads them!
