Georgia Bible Camp

We just finished up another week at Georgia Bible Camp with over 80 children participating this year. It was a wonderful week of watching many of them introduce themselves to each other and over the week becoming friends. We enjoyed a week of bonding through activities that helped them get to know each other, a time each day of cabin devotionals, bible classes, singing, praying, ropes course, zipline, kayaking, fishing, ping pong, shaving cream battles, and many other opportunities to grow close to each other and to the Lord. It was an awesome week to watch them get out of their "comfort zones" and enjoy time getting to know their new friends.

It also was enjoyable to watch the counselors from different congregations and backgrounds spending time together and building relationships with brothers and sisters that will last for a lifetime.

I recommend that you look at your calendars for next summer and please go ahead and mark off the second week in June for your child to be a part of camp. It is one of the best decisions you can make for the Spiritual walk of your child!

There is a saying that all parents can relate to – "Having a child is like having your heart walking around outside of your body"! Raising a child today is filled with joy, emotions, uncertainties, and sorrows. God's word is full of parenting wisdom and understanding so we as parents need to always be looking to His word in helping us as we watch our children grow up no matter how old they are. "Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old, he will not depart from it" Proverbs 22:6
